SYMPOSIUM : LES TEMPS DE LA QUALITÉ IN MONTREAL

Address

UQAM - Pavillon des sciences de la gestion - R-M120 - 315, rue Sainte-Catherine , CA Montréal

On the occasion of the itinerancy of the exhibition enter: five architecture in Belgium in Montreal (Center of design of the UQAM, from October 3rd till December 9th 2018), the Bureau du design du Service du développement économique de la Ville de Montréal and the Cellule architecture of the Wallonia-Brussels Federation organize a symposium on the question of the state commission. This one will take place on November 22nd from 6pm to 9 pm at the UQAM.

More specifically, this symposium will handle processes of granting of the order and will examine their incidence on the quality and the temporality of a project.

The symposium will so cross experiences from Canada, Belgium, France and Switzerland, inviting for each country a specialist of the question. This exchange of experience will allow to seize both the common points as the differences between the presented processes, according to specificities (territorial, programmatic, cultural or political) of those who implement them.

Participants: Chantal Dassonville, Carol Bélanger, Francesco Della Casa, Émilie Moreau.

Free admission, book here.
