ATELIER D'ARCHITECTURE
MATADOR

Description

According to us, architecture is defined by its political commitment, its critical position, its cultural vocation, exceeding its strict programmatic contingency, his worries about the context, ....

Matador is an architecture office based in Brussels and Mons. He argues for an architecture as defined in the introduction.

His energy is deployed in the participation to competitions, public tenders and projects of various scales ranging from private home to collective sets of importance through public buildings to cultural or administrative purpose. It passes through practices such as architecture, interior design, furniture, public space, the museum scenography, set design for the theater.
