Address

Programme

A dining hall and three classrooms for CBAI

About

The project rehabilitates an annex building of the Brussels Centre for Intercultural Action (CBAI) and his court, three classrooms and meeting space.

The project could be summed up in a staircase, however, this sophisticated object is not nearly as simple as it seems. He first of usage qualities. It helps of course to access classes in the new wing, it also serves as an emergency staircase to the existing building that could not be compartmentalized. But above all, it is the place of informal meetings.
