Project	# LIGHTING PLAN FOR THE SAINT-JACQUES DISTRICT OF BRUSSELS
Architects	RADIANCE 35
Address	quartier Saint-Jacques, 1000 Bruxelles
Programe	The Lighting Plan for the Saint James district of Brussels seeks to create a light trail within the neighbourhood. Based on a three-fold approach (redesigned public lighting, unified shop windows and scenographic lighting) it provides a genuine link between the modern-day district and its past, giving it a unique feel.
About	The scenographic lighting has been conceived as a genuine artistic intervention, consisting of projected images along the route, produced in collaboration with the Italian "Zimmerfrei" artists collective), like a series of tracks, inviting passers-by to raise their head and admire the area's remarkable architecture.
Typology	Landscape, urban areas
Status	Concept proposal
Conception	2010
Delivery	2011
Client	Ville de Bruxelles et Atrium
Artists	Zimmerfrei
