
MSA: LECTURE IN VIENNA

During the Austrian Presidency of the EU, the Architekturzentrum Wien is showing the best European architecture projects from the last two years, presenting the Mies van der Rohe Awards 2017 exhibition. On this occasion, the Brussels-based architecture office MSA will give a lecture on September 12th.

In may 2017, MSA has received the MIES AWARD 2017 in the category "emerging architect" for the realization of a small social apartments building localized on a plot to seemed impossible to be built. Jean-Marc Simon who is co-founder of MSA will be telling you everything about this building and many other realised or unrealised MSA projects.

Date

12/09/18

Publication

06/07/18